

Name: _____ Date: _____ Period: _____

Trump's Trade War

FRONTLINE and NPR investigate the forces driving the Trump administration's gamble to confront China in Trump's Trade War. Trump's Trade War takes viewers on the ground in both the U.S. and China, drawing on business and government insider accounts to offer an eye-opening look at the increasingly competitive rivalry between the two countries - a rivalry that extends well beyond just trade and tariffs.

Watch here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4\_xQ5JisFuo&t=3s

Directions: Complete the chart below while watching the film.

1. In April 2017, President Trump headed to Mar-a-Lago for the most important _____ of his early presidency.
2. One of the things that President Trump believes—he believes in this totally—is that _____ of great powers can make a difference.
3. Within a year, Trump would turn on _____, imposing billions of dollars in tariffs and leading the United States into a perilous confrontation.
4. The state of _____ could be the hardest hit by this looming trade war with America's biggest trading partners.
5. The two camps disagreed sharply over whether aggressive measures like _____ would help or hurt the American economy.
6. And we need it. We need it even for defense, if you think—I mean, we need it for defense. We need great _____.
7. The China model is a blend between national control and ownership of resources and economic activities dominated by private entrepreneurs. _____ percent of the new jobs are in the private sector, but all the land is still owned by the _____.
8. Oh, interesting. You know, when a country upgrading the whole industrial base, the best example would be the _____.
9. One of the biggest problems the U.S. has had with China over the years is what's come to be known as "_____," where companies wanting to do business in China say they're pressured to give up their technology.
10. They engaged in predatory and protectionist policies. China wasn't supposed to be doing this under rules set by the _____, which it had joined in 2001.
11 In all, more than _____ organizations were hacked by spies dating back to 2006. The _____ hack led to revelations about dozens of other Chinese cyberattacks.
12. Now through the Made in China _____, the Communist Party has set its sights on controlling 90% of the world's most advanced industries, including robotics, biotechnology and artificial intelligence.
13. The U.S. needs to keep a technological advantage, and _____ is generating a lot of the innovations that are powering the U.S. in terms of all sorts of different technologies.
14. We've got to fix our system to compete with China. We've got to _____ and not spend all our time blaming on China.
15. But whether a deal is made, Trump's trade war has heightened the _____. And the specter of a prolonged rivalry looms large.	